1. FOXALL

I, Sally Walker, wish to be known as the author of this research. I declare that the research detailed herein is entirely my own. Sources have include Findmypast, Ancestry, FreeBMD, and Familysearch. Details of Parish events (Baptisms, Weddings and Burials), Civil events (Births, Marriages and Deaths) and Census events have been taken from the images available on these websites. Although every effort has been made to be 100% certain of some the family relationships identified herein it should be acknowledged that the further back you go the more likely errors will creep in. Apologies if they have. Family Historian has been used to create this document.

FOXALL.

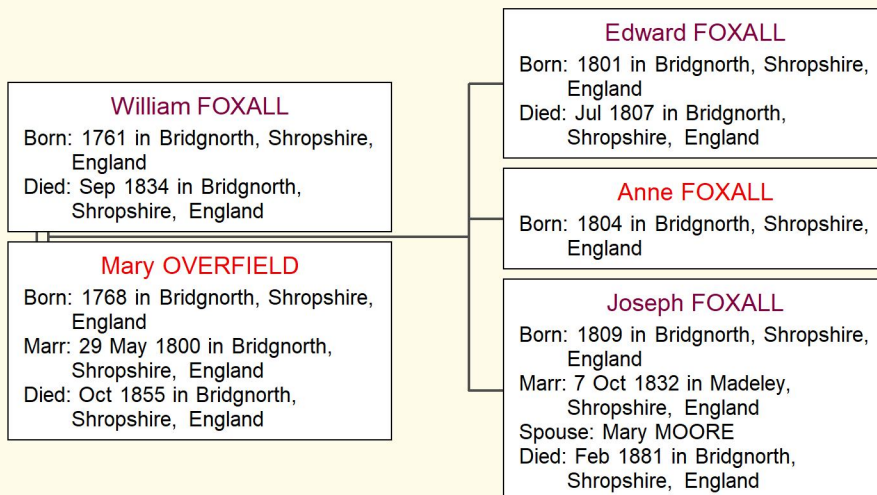

Encounters with FOXALL

Within the GoONS study of the surname JAUNDRELL there have been encounters with those bearing the surname FOXALL.

This study is declared as a SIDETRACK as research into these families is minimal and has not dug excessively into the associated family roots/branches.

Searches have tended to focus on the Bridgnorth area of south Shropshire. It is noted that the earliest recorded bearers of the FOXALL name are dated circa 1539 in the Alveley, Chelmarsh and Worfield (search on Find My Past).
