

JAUNDRELL - KENT

To date research has shown very little evidence of a JAUNDRELL presence in Kent.

Details of families and individuals are detailed later in the document.

Summation

The JAUNDRELL presence in Kent is sporadic. Nothing really consistent until 1939.

At that census point Albert Ronald JAUNDRILL (variant) was working as the Shop Manager of a Man's Costumers. He was born in St Helens, Lancashire and was the son of John Thomas JAUNDRILL (1864-1937 and Hannah EDMUNSON (1875-1936).

John Thomas was a non-native of Lancashire being born in Dawley (RD: Madeley) Shropshire. He was by occupation a coal miner as were his father, male siblings and grandfathers. His paternal family line has a presence in Dawley going back to 1792. John Thomas was the only son of Thomas JAUNDRILL (1819-1896) and third wife, Siberiah CARTER (1828-1899). Thomas was the eldest son of William JAUNDRELL (1792-1869) and Mary HOWLE (1792-1881).
