

“Sharing the Joy” Guild of One-Name Studies Webinar – May 2018

Bob Cumberbatch & Paul Howes

Our websites:

- www.cumberbatch.org and his Guild Member Website: <http://cumberbatch.one-name.net/>
- www.howesfamilies.com

Guild websites

- www.one-name.org – the main websites
- www.one-name.net – The Guild’s Members’ Websites Project, now over 200 sites!
- <http://marriage-locator.co.uk/> - Where did an English/Welsh marriage take place?
- http://one-name.org/name_profile/cumberbatch/ - Cumberbatch profile page
- http://one-name.org/name_profile/howes/ - Howes/House/etc. profile page

Four different ways Paul shares stories on his website:

- <http://howesfamilies.com/histories/kingscliff.php> – an enhanced reprint of someone else’s work
- <http://howesfamilies.com/people.php?id=5> – sample page of a set on some notable people
- <http://howesfamilies.com/forum/viewtopic.php?f=42&t=137> – monthly newsletters
- <http://howesfamilies.com/getperson.php?personID=I25782&tree=Onename> – individual web pages

Five different ways Bob shares stories on his website:

- About People
 - <http://www.cumberbatch.org/index.php/people/military-stories/world-war-1> - WW1 Memorial arranged by surname. For instance, the black & white photo here:
<http://www.cumberbatch.org/index.php/people/military-stories/world-war-2/barbados-2nd-contingent> led to the stamp and the Plungar Memorial & Service in 2012
- About Places
 - <http://www.cumberbatch.org/index.php/places>

- About Things:
 - <http://www.cumberbatch.org/index.php/things>
- About the Surnames:
 - <http://www.cumberbatch.org/index.php/surnames>
 - <http://www.cumberbatch.org/index.php/surnames/comberbach/comberbach-book> - transcription of a Comberbach ONS privately published in 1866 by a York Herald whose mother was Comberbach
- Genealogies
 - <http://www.cumberbatch.org/genealogy/> and <http://cumberbatch.one-name.net/>

Other ways Paul communicates with people about Howes, House & similar surnames

- <https://www.facebook.com/search/top/?q=howes%20family%20association> & other FB groups
- www.rootsweb.com – lists for surnames and places, when Rootsweb works!
- <https://www.familytreedna.com/public/house> – our DNA study with 247 participants
- <https://nfgenealogyconference.org/conference-schedule/presenters/> - speaking to conferences
- <http://howesfamilies.com/histories/EDP.pdf> – newspaper centrefold!
- <http://howesfamilies.com/histories/FTMarticle.pdf> – magazine article
- <http://howesfamilies.com/browsesources.php?sourcesearch=ne-na> – almost 140 other Guild members
- <http://howesfamilies.com/histories/feature5.php> – websites owned/run by Howes people
- Ancestry.com – personal profile and corrections all marked www.howesfamilies.com
- FreeBMD.org.uk postem notes for every marriage in our database
- Word of mouth

Other ways Bob communicates with people about Cumberbatch or Cumberpatch & similar surnames

- Cumberpatch group: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/166326346825279/> there are several on Cumberbatch
- Questions from the Press - Here is an article which claimed Benedict Cumberbatch is related to Richard III and Alan Turing and which cites Andrew Millard's work: <http://www.tert.am/en/news/2015/03/25/benedict/1627959> leading to:
 - 'If Andrew Millard's conclusions are right, then it seems highly probable that Benedict may indeed be related to many characters he has played and will play in future with some exceptions such as Sherlock.'