DNA Seminar

Two years since our last DNA seminar, we are now holding our sixth one – the Guild is always ahead of the game! It is a fast growing and rapidly changing area, so we are very grateful to the 95 members who completed the recent survey and helped us shape this seminar to meet the widest range of knowledge and interests.

Respondents classed their knowledge as 15 beginner, 36 basic, 32 average and 12 advanced, and we have asked our speakers to reflect this in their presentations and the programme. Most people have undertaken a DNA test, predominantly with Family Tree DNA, but with many others also being used. But there is definitely a common cry of ‘what next?’ when the results arrive, so understanding and using the results, and getting to grips with the various tools that can help with this, will be important aspects of the seminar.

There will be a dedicated beginner/basic stream of 5 talks, with a further choice of two other talks at each time slot for those wishing to further enhance their DNA learning. Whatever your level of knowledge – new to DNA, keen but confused or an old hand – there will be something for everyone at Oadby on 6th October. Do come along.
