

GUILD DNA SEMINAR - SATURDAY 6TH October 2018

BEGINNERS' SESSIONS (Stream 1)

Time	Session	Beginner Sessions (Stream 1)	Speaker
10.15-11.15	1	What is DNA? Its structure, how it changes and is passed through the generations and how those changes can be used in genealogical research	Geoff Swinfield
11.15-11.25	Comfort Break
11.25-12.25	2	What might my results look like? A very simple explanation of the three main types of genealogical DNA tests, based on actual results	Barbara Griffiths
12.25-13.30	Lunch	13.00-13.20 Help Session – All speakers at individual tables to answer queries
13.30-14.30	3	Choosing who to test A family tree-based explanation of who receives what types of DNA and how that might help your research	Barbara Griffiths
14.30-14.40	Comfort Break
Time	Session	Beginner Sessions	Speaker
14.40-15.40	4	Autosomal DNA testing (for those who have not tested) The basics – what it is, how it works, what the results tell you	Donna Rutherford
15.40-16.00	Tea
16.00-17.00	5	Using DNA in a one-name study Setting up a project, using Y and autosomal DNA testing in a surname study, buying kits and where I can go for help and advice	Geoff Swinfield