

2022 Conference

In line with the cancellation arrangements that were offered for bookings for the cancelled 2020 conference being transferred to April 2021 the following options for now transferring or cancelling these 2021 conference bookings have been agreed by the Guild officers:

We were delighted and grateful that the vast majority of delegates booked for the 2020 conference asked for their booking to be transferred over to 2021.

Anticipating continued strong support for the rescheduled 2022 date, the Guild officers are confident that the financial position of next year's conference looks favourable and accordingly can offer the same booking options as previously offered for the 2021 event:

1. Anyone who has already asked to cancel, or requests to do so on or before May 31st 2021 will be offered a full refund of their booking
2. In line with the 2021 booking conditions
 - a. Any room booking cancelled between June 1st 2021 and March 13th 2022 will be refunded less the non-refundable deposit of £75.00 per person
 - b. Any other booking cancelled between June 1st 2021 and March 13th 2022 will be refunded less the non-refundable deposit of 25% per person
 - c. Any room or other booking cancelled on or after March 14th 2022 will be fully non-refundable
3. For those transferring their 2020 booking from 2021 the room and other rates are guaranteed
4. The level and availability of an early bird room rate, and the closing date for this, will be dependent on how many room bookings from 2021 are eventually transferred over to 2022
5. The hotel had indicated that for any rooms booked over and above the number reserved for 2020 the rate in 2021 would be £25.00 per person higher therefore we advised for 2021
 - a. Any early bird room rate is likely to be £325.00 for a single room
 - b. The full rate is likely to be at least £350.00 for a single room

therefore these two rates might be anticipated to be higher still for 2022

On behalf of the conference organising team we are grateful to all those delegates who will again transfer their booking forward to April 2022 – when we hope to finally meet you in Oxford!

Please address all communication to the organisers at conference-booking@one-name.org